

Project Contributors needed for D.A. Literature

This is an opportunity to do service for the D.A. Fellowship using your skills as a writer, copy editor, or proof-reader. The GSB Literature Publications Committee has literature projects at every stage of development and is looking for members of our Fellowship either with a good level of professional experience, particularly in writing, editing, and/or proof-reading.

Copy Editor

We are looking to compile a list of skilled Copy Editors who can use the D.A. Style Guide to make our literature conform to the very best standards of U.S. English.

Proof Reader

You will be the professional who can catch the typos and the errors before our publications go to print.

Pamphlet Writers

The Fellowship has approved and developed outlines for several pamphlets which now need to be developed into written literature in U.S. English.

Project Contributors are recovering D.A. members who have experience or expertise in a particular field, and are willing to serve on a specific project for the benefit of the Fellowship. For more information, please visit the official website at www.debtorsanonymous.org/service

Ideal Candidate will have one year of not incurring unsecured debt, and be motivated, punctual, organized, thorough, detail-oriented, and orderly, will work well with others, and be highly service-oriented.
