Passcode: P6Day

With great anticipation of our 2022 WSC in London, please plan to join in as Tamala S., D.A fellow, hosts an interactive cooking and baking demonstration on preparing a British Afternoon Tea. Participants will join in the fun with sharing some of your experiences with British/Scottish/Irish teas abroad or here in the States.

The demo will include: The do’s and don’ts to create buttery flaky scones every time, easy homemade lemon curd and clotted cream, selecting jams, preparing an assortment of classic tea sandwiches, Scotch Woodcock, Welsh rarebit, jam tarts, English layered trifle dessert, and other fancies. Selecting the perfect teas and preparing the table for our special ‘London Guests’ will round out our event.

In celebration of D.A's Promise 6 Day: Join D.A. fellow and professional Chef, Roger S., as he hosts an interactive cooking class via Zoom! Cook along and enjoy an appetizer, main course and two side dishes. Roger will teach you to create this simple yet delicious menu and answer your questions live!

If you would like to cook along with Roger please email him at: roger@rogerbakes.com for the ingredient list and preparation details.

Class will last approximately one hour with additional time for enjoying the meal together. Roger says, 'the more interactive, the better!' So, bring your questions and comments.

Menu:

Arugula and Fennel and Orange Vinaigrette

Seared Salmon with Dijon Maple Glaze

Crispy Creamy Lemon Potatoes

Grilled Asparagus with Tomatoes and Parmesan

Please note that the cooking class will not be recorded, nor will any aspect of it be shared via social media. This is a virtual gathering exclusively for members of this D.A. fellowship.

11:00 A.M. - ?

Topic: Virtual Dessert and Dance Party

Sponsored by Saturday Brooklyn Tools for A-bun-dance meeting. The meeting is also celebrating the 30th anniversary of that meeting which started in Cobble Hill Park, Brooklyn. We are meeting in person safely at 3:00 P.M. that same Sat at the park on Clinton Street at Congress. Imre, one of our members, helped found that meeting in that park 30 years ago. Everyone is welcome.

Happy Promise Six Day to all.
